

The background image shows a modern living room. On the left, a dark grey armchair is partially visible with a cream-colored throw blanket draped over it. To the right of the chair is a black metal side table with a glass top and a perforated metal bottom shelf. The table holds a white ceramic diffuser with reeds, a small dish of stones, and a book. A textured, light-colored rug covers the floor. In the background, there are potted plants and a white ceramic vase on a shelf.
